- Ms. Tori Skidgel – East Noble Color Guard, Winter Guard Instructor

WHAT IS “WINTER KNIGHTS”

- The combination of Indoor Percussion and Winter Guard.
- We will compete in the Indiana Percussion Association circuit

Registration

- All families must fill out the registration form on the eastnoblebands.com website to register for this ensemble. Families should plan to complete this before the first rehearsal.

AUDITION INFORMATION

- Audition Camp Dates: Nov. 11-12
- Results posted: Nov. 13
- Audition packets have information about technique, exercises, things you'll need to bring, etc.

It is important to realize that audition results do not reflect opinions of students' character. You may not get put on your first choice for instrument. EVERY single part and instrument is important to the group effort.

Guard Information

- Guard will meet Nov. 11-12 6:00-8:30 PM
- Tori will be sending information out on these day
- Unique, creative opportunities with dance, flag, sabre, rifle, etc.
- Performers should be prepared to start working
  - Bring water
  - Appropriate clothing
  - etc.

- The full schedule can be found on the band website, eastnoblebands.com
- Always use the google calendar for the most up to date schedule.

COMPETITION SCHEDULE / SATURDAY SCHEDULE

Competition day details will become available the week before the contest. This is something out of our control, as the host schools must get their master schedules in place and out to competing groups.

Plan on early mornings and late nights.

- Comp 1: February 13th - Norwell
- Comp 2: TBD
- Comp 3: March 6th - Carroll
- Prelims: March 20th
- Finals: March 27th

During the months of February and March we will have several other Saturdays dedicated to rehearsing and/or performances (non-competitive).
