

East Noble Jazz Band

PFW Jazz Fest

February 11, 2020

Purdue University Fort Wayne will be hosting their Jazz Festival on Tuesday, February 11th. We are looking forward to this exciting opportunity. Students will perform on the Auer Stage in Rhinehart Auditorium, receive a 30-minute onstage clinic with jazz musicians and educators Malcolm Lynn Baker, Director of Jazz & Commercial Music at the University of Denver, and Jim Widner, Teaching Professor of Music and Director of Jazz Studies at The University of Missouri – St. Louis. The band will also receive a professional recording of their performance. Parents are welcome to attend!

Attire for all Jazz Band performances: (Boys) suite, dress shirt, and tie. (Girls) appropriate length dress, or a dressy pants with a blouse.

10:30am	Load Buses
10:30am	Depart for Glenbrook food court
11:30am	Arrive at Glenbrook
11:30-12:30	Eat Lunch
12:30pm	Depart for PFW
12:45pm	Arrive at PFW, unload
1:30pm	Warm-up
2:00pm	PERFORM! Have fun!
2:30pm	Clinic
3:00pm	Depart PFW
4:00pm	Arrive at East Noble